Digital Forensics as a Service - A Game Changer

By

Ruud van Baar, Harm van Beek and Erwin van Eijk

Presented At

The Digital Forensic Research Conference

DFRWS 2014 EU Amsterdam, NL (May 7th - 9th)

DFRWS is dedicated to the sharing of knowledge and ideas about digital forensics research. Ever since it organized the first open workshop devoted to digital forensics in 2001, DFRWS continues to bring academics and practitioners together in an informal environment. As a non-profit, volunteer organization, DFRWS sponsors technical working groups, annual conferences and challenges to help drive the direction of research and development.

Digital evidence → data to investigate analyst → digital investigator → detective

The answer is 42.

What was the question?
Time frame

I'm just outside town, so I should be there in fifteen minutes.

Actually, it's looking more like six days.

No, wait, thirty seconds.
